TO THE PUBLIC.

To avoid misunderstanding, parties desiring to dispose of coins will please notice the following facts:

I never purchase coins without first seeing them. Persons residing at a distance should send the pieces they desire to sell by mail or express, enclosing an amount sufficient to return in case my offer is unsatisfactory. I always make an offer as soon as the coins are received, and return immediately if it is not accepted.

The prices paid for coins vary according to their condition. A coin badly worn may be worth only its face value; while the same date in uncirculated condition may be worth many dollars.

Poor coins are those which have only part of the designs visible.

Fair coins are those which are somewhat worn, but have the greater part of the designs plain and distinct.

Good coins are those which have every part plain and distinct; no portion of the designs, legends or dates being worn from the pieces by being in circulation.

Fine coins are those which, while they have been in circulation, show only the slightest wear.

Uncirculated coins are strictly unused, being in the condition they were when first issued from the Mint, showing no signs whatever of the least rubbing or wear.

Proof coins are those pieces which have been coined at the Mint for the use of collectors, and are strictly unused, having a polished mirror-like surface.

All letters of inquiry must contain stamp for return postage.

I will pay CASH for all coins named in this catalogue at prices annexed. Prices are from FAIR to PROOF.

Valuable Recipes.

THE PAUL BROTHERS' VIOLET INK.—The best violet ink in the market. The ink can be made in five minutes, at less than $1.00 per gallon, and retails readily for 75c., a pint. Boys attending school, can start an ink manufactory, outside of school hours, and retail it to their companions, and wholesale it to the merchants in town, thus doing a good business, with small capital. Directions, 25c.

RED writing ink, such as druggists sell for twenty-five cents a bottle costs but 5c. One gallon can be made in an hour. BIG profit to merchants, as they can save the first, and largest profit. Recipe, 10c

Green, Gold, Silver, Secret and Yellow. Recipes .10 each, or all, 25c.

HOW TO PRESERVE EGGS.—Simple and effective. Eggs can be kept two years by this method. It costs but little. This recipe has been sold for $5.00 to farmers and merchants, who buy their eggs in summer, for 12 or 15 cents, and keep them until winter, and then sell them for 30 or 35 cts. per doz. Price of recipe, 25c.

SILVER PLAATING.—By following this recipe you can make old watches, chains and jewelry look as good as new, and trade them off at a big profit. Price of recipe, 25c.

Mrs. H. J. Clement,

Would inform the ladies of Laconia and vicinity, that she has just received a large and varied assortment of Millinery goods—from New York and Boston markets. Her stock comprises all the novelties in hats, bonnets, laces, feathers, ribbons and flowers, to which she is constantly making additions. No trouble to show goods. Please call and examine them, at Howe's New Store, corner of Pleasant and Water Streets,—opposite Unitarian Church.

MRS. H. J. CLEMENT, Laconia N. H.
